General Product Description:
Parts plastic injected and assembled

Description of Changes
Manufacturing location change. Following Part Numbers will be transferred of the TE Connectivity manufacturing location internally, but in the same building. In addition, this PCN replaces the recently issued PCN No. P-24-027338.

Reason for Changes:
Dear Customer, for continuous strive for improving our processes, we inform you about a processes transfer. According to PPAP Manual 4th Edition 2006, Section 3 - 3.1 Customer Notification, item 3. Production following upgrade or rearrangement of existing tooling or equipment - Rearrangement is defined as activity that changes the sequence of productand process flow from that documented in the process flow diagram ,including the addition of a new process. Minor adjustments of production equipment may be required do meet safety requirements such as, installation of protective covers, elimination of potential ESD risks, etc. As described in the manual, since it is only a change in the current position of the machine within the same factory, it does not require the submission of a new PPAP. Submitting the PCN is only the communication of the event within the factory, and does not require additional activities, unless there is a Specific Requirem. for this action.
