

TE Connectivity

Product Change Notification:

PCN Date: 12-Mar-24

General Product Description: (Text limited to 120 characters)
SR4 relay series local production

Description of Changes:
TE Connectivity's (hereafter TE) Shenzhen plant will duplicate the production of SR4 products and start mass production on June 1st, 2024(estimation). Raw materials, production processes and product performance standard of the local SR4 products are consistent with those produced in Europe. At the same time, in order to better manage the local products, we have also assigned the local product material numbers to the SR4 produced in the Shenzhen plant.

Reason for Changes:
Meet customers' requests for localized supply chain and provide excellent customer experience.
